

NEWS BULLETIN

18th June 2015

Hi all and welcome to the June Bulletin,

At the start of this month we celebrated Volunteers' Week. It was a great time to say a big THANK YOU to our many volunteers and to have some fun as well.

Some of us attended the Volunteers' Fair which was held in The Galleries shopping centre. We met some lovely people, some who were interested in coming to our groups as well as some potential new volunteers and had an enjoyable afternoon mingling with the shoppers and other organisations who had come along to raise awareness of their work and then later on we had a lovely social evening with our volunteers.

Modelling the Changes t-shirt here is Ravin, one of our Trustees.

Yes, we did use sweeties to entice passers by to our stall!

Disclaimer: Changes Bristol holds no responsibility for external links, events, services or organisations provided in our newsletter. Any information given in no way represents endorsement by Changes Bristol or any of its affiliates. Any content provided is purely for informative reasons and all activities should be taken at your own risk.. This newsletter is distributed not only to Changes members, but members of other organisations or interested parties. Please bear this in mind if you are writing a contribution for the newsletter and wish to maintain your anonymity.

You're Invited

GET TOGETHER & DISCOVER

The Royal British Legion would like to invite you
To our Get Together and Discover at the new

Pop In Advice & Information Centre
60 Union Street
Broadmead, Bristol BS1 2DL
on the

1st July, 2015, all day between 9am & 7.30pm

This will be an opportunity to see the Legions new Pop In with a representative for each area of work we do, meet other veterans for a chat in the 'chatroom' and meet and talk to some of the other charities and organisations working with the armed forces in the Bristol and surrounding areas.

Time2share run social groups and a 1:1 befriending service which links disabled children and young people with a volunteer. Both services enable young people to develop friendships, feel less isolated, undertake fun activities, learn new skills, build confidence and develop independence.

They need people with a passion for supporting young people's development to volunteer with us. See their website www.time2share.org.uk for more details or email hello@time2share.org.uk

The next Newsletter will be a longer edition and will be out on Thursday 9th July. The deadline for submissions is Monday 15th July. Please email any contributions to newsletter@changesbristol.org.uk